

Forest, BIRD AND HISTORY!

Majestic Puketi Ancient Forest and the unforgettable Waitangi Treaty Grounds

From your stunning base at the iconic award winning Duke of Marlborough Hotel & Restaurant on the picturesque Russell waterfront, you can hop across the water to be transported to one of Northlands most stunning subtropical forests packed with ancient Kauri trees, teeming with Native birdlife, rare plants, large flowing rivers and epic waterfalls. To ensure your trip North is truly memorable immerse yourself in the history at Waitangi Treaty Grounds.

DETAILS

Adventure Puketi have been taking tours for 11 years now and your personalised guided walk will be like no other you have experienced. Their excellent guides are well versed in the area's Nineteenth Century Colonial and Maori history – and even today you can still trace their presence in the forest. This is a fun, interactive and truly memorable outdoor walking and eco experience. The tours be tailored to fit all levels of fitness from low impact for the elderly to extreme terrain for those who are keen!

Waitangi Treaty Grounds is New Zealand's most important historic site. Visiting the Treaty Grounds is an unforgettable experience as you step back in time and discover our European and Maori history. The grounds are beautiful with stunning panoramic views of the Bay of Islands. The ultimate Waitangi Treaty Grounds experience ensures you get it all!

Ferries – catch the passenger ferry to Paihia which is then a 3km walk or drive to Waitangi. Or the car ferry from Okiato (Russell side) to Opua and that is a 15 minute drive to Waitangi. If going to the forest, self-drive or they will pick you up for an additional cost.
