

Catch AND COOK!

You hook it, we cook it! Reel in the catch of the day, and the Chef at the Duke of Marlborough will gladly cook your catch.

From your stunning base at the iconic award winning Duke of Marlborough Hotel & Restaurant on the picturesque Russell waterfront, you will discover the beautiful Bay of Islands and the anglers Eldorado. The skippers of Blue Sea Charters know the fishing spots like the back of their hands! The fishing is superb – all the world and National Records for Striped Marlin, Yellowtail Kingfish and Snapper are held on this coast.

DETAILS

Snapper Fishing with Blue Sea Charters take a half day trip in the Bay of Islands – setting off from Russell Wharf. They cater for the novice who dreams of catching a big game fish, the tourist who just wants to enjoy Snapper fishing in the much talked about Bay of Islands, and the experienced angler who is after a world class fish. The Snapper or "Tamure" as it is called in Maori is one of New Zealand's most popular and sought after fish by recreational fishermen. The Snappers popularity owes much to the fact that not only are they a good fighting fish, which makes for exciting fishing, but they are also an excellent table fish. So if you are lucky enough to 'hook it' – the chef will cook it!
